Presented By

The Annual Staff
Orange Memorial Hospital School Of Nursing
Orlando, Florida

Dear Mother Irej,

I suppose the first time you see this, your eyes will fog a bit, and years will pass before your eyes as though they were yesterday. You will remember the students who came before us, you will know others who will come after us, but we hope you will remember us with the same fond feelings and loyalty we accord you. Therefore, to you, Miss Irene Irej, we dedicate this 1961 White Cap.

We will never forget the first time we saw you. You were standing on the porch with a welcoming smile on your face and outstretched hands. Since then we have come to know the person and the heart within.

In the short time we have been here, you have never hesitated to help in any way you could. You have laughed with us and cried with us, and held untold numbers of sick hands. You have encouraged us, championed us, and cheered us on. You have listened to our stories and offered advice and been available whenever we needed you.

Yes, we have come to know you and to love you. Thoughts of our training days are mingled with thoughts of you and whatever life has in store for all of us, we are deeply indebted and grateful for the fine example and loving guidance you gave us. May God always be with you and bless you as you continue to help the students of OMH.

*With all our love,
Your OMH Students*

MISS IRENE IREJ - HOUSEMOTHER

THE NURSE

That cap the nurse on duty wears
Is costlier than the bonnets gay
Worn by the wives of millionaires
Regardless of the price they pay.
'Tis something she herself can make,
A bit of linen, trimmed and turned.
The right to it (for mercy's sake)
Was with three years of training earned.

That uniform of spotless white
Was costlier than a lady's gown,
'Twas bought with care by day and night
For those with illness stricken down.
The royal robes show royal birth
But every nurse's simple pin
Is emblematic of her worth;
A symbol she has toiled to win.

Oh gracious spirit, love imbued,
That can such tender care accord,
Perhaps it is, that gratitude
Must always be your best reward.
Now out of gratitude appears
This tribute, done in simple verse
Unto the dedicated years
Of all who choose to be a nurse.

OMH REPORTER AT THE 10TH ANNUAL REUNION OF CLASS OF 1961

Meeting called to order by Shirley La France, who had just flown in from her sheep ranch in Australia where she breeds multi-colored sheep for her afghans. An astonished look passed over Miss La Frances' face as she observed the increase in height of Marilyn Lee (Marilyn just returned from a U. N. Convention on Mars—the Martians were really big—at least 5'5") as was Diane Beard only in the other direction. Rockefeller Morgan the famed philanthropist president and founder of the Morgan football team 11 asked "is everyone present?" From the rear of the room Carolyn Parsons, the Authoress of Life in New Orleans, politely announced Dee Guthery is not present. She is in traction in the Astatula Clinic, founded by Eileen Blundell, as she cracked up in her Ford while racing against Becky Sprott in her yellow Triumph and Dot Newton in her lavender T-Bird at Sebring. Jan Wilkes, successor to Elizabeth Arden, was present at the races demonstrating her new hormonal suntan cream.

Whoops, there went JoAnn Conklin out the door as P. J. Johnson, Chairman of the Board of N.L.N.'s for student nurses, mentioned a new scholarship being offered.

Among the absentees was also noted Linda Lory on Missionary work in Africa and Marilyn Heintzelman on missionary work in New Guinea. Keep up the good work girls.

The entertainment committee consisted of Jeanene McGowan, prop manager who has her own carpenter in the family, Janet Card, music directress playing her Clarinet, Judy Wilson with her electronic accordion designed especially for her by Poggys, Inc., and Mary Jean Baughman who furnished the piano music.

Anchors Aweigh was played in deference to Lucy McCullough, Joyce McLean, and Lois Gullikson, who are now in charge of the U.S.S.O.M.H. Hospital Ship.

Jean Barry ran in late—seems Tom still can't make it on time.

Janie Thomson, Commander-in-Chief of S.A.C. (spouse and children) called attention to the fact that Carlene Stickler is now wearing her ring with her uniform, and to the hard earned wedding bands worn by Judy Carey and JoAnn Pert.

The one most likely to succeed, namely Patsy Chamings, succeeded.

The refreshment committee served Georgia peaches brought especially by Gwen Christman (sprained back and all) Mary Jo Barnes furnished self-picked Kumquats Barbara Hughes, co-owner of the only house in Florida with an elevator between the kitchen stove and the oven, brought homemade shepherd pie. Florida's own Allie Horsburgh, industrial nurse at Minute Maid, brought different kinds of juices. Lou Shortt had G.I. cocktails on hand.

And last but not least Carol Heber was elected Chief for the Year.

A good time was had by all.

Meeting adjourned.
